Dear Doctor Wilkinson:

My hearty greetings to you, as Rector, and through you to the congregation of St. Thomas' as you celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the completion of the church fabric.

The pointed spire and lancet windows of St. Thomas' have become a familiar feature in the landscape of the national capital just as the spiritual mission emanating from this church has enriched and ennobled the entire community.

To me personally, this church, in which I once served as a vestryman, holds happy memories and associations of three decades and more. May its good works grow and prosper.

Very sincerely yours,

Foreword

In spite of present conditions, with the necessity of conservation, this booklet is published and offered to you at this time because of the significance of the year 1943 in the history of St. Thomas' Church, the Fiftieth Anniversary of the present structure, a monument to both of my predecessors: 1893-1943. Further, there has not been an historical publication here, of such proportions, since 1927, when the Rev. Dr. Smith had been Rector twenty-five years.

The Beginnings

Originally there stood at the junction of P Street, Massachusetts Avenue and Dupont Circle the Chapel of the Holy Cross, with the Rev. James A. Harrold, M.D. in charge. In January of 1890, the Rev. Josiah B. Perry, Rector of St. Andrew's Parish, secured its use for Services as a Chapel of that Parish, and it became known as St. Andrew's Chapel. These Services were discontinued in December, and in March of 1891 a group of nine men were responsible for the true genesis of St. Thomas' Parish. They were A. D. Addison, C. J. Bell, Melville Church, C. M. Ffoulke, George C. Henning, Archibald Hopkins, Joseph K. McCammon, B. P. Minnack, Henry E. Pellew. An organization was effected as Calvary Parish on June 11, 1891, at which time the Rev. John A. Aspinwall was called from Long Island to be the Rector. A brick Chapel was completed on January 24, 1892, the location being that of the present Parish House, and it was used as such for some years after the completion of this Church. Ground was broken for the new Church building on October 10, 1893, while on December 4th it was decided to change the name to St. Thomas and to make the name of the Parish correspond. The Corner-Stone was laid on June 15, 1894, though inscribed thereon you will see 1893, while the first Service was not held there until five years later, June 25, 1899. Theophilus P. Chandler, of Philadelphia, was the architect, and the contract price of the building was $80,000, exclusive of land, glass, seats, heating and lighting. The Rev. Dr. Aspinwall resigned the rectorship in June of 1902, effective September 30th.

On November 1, 1902, the Rev. Charles Ernest Smith, D.D., D.C.L. came from Baltimore to assume the rectorship of St. Thomas' Parish and until he retired on June 30, 1936, he gave himself unstintingly to the cancellation of debt, the raising of an endowment, the building of Parish House and Rectory, the enlargement and beautification of the Church, the installation of organ, windows, a Chapel and other memorials. By 1912 there was paid a debt of $72,500 plus $30,000 interest. This House of God and Place of Worship for All People might well be said to stand as a Memorial of those thirty-three years and eight months under the leadership of him who joined the Church Triumphant on June 2, 1939.

St. Thomas' Church was consecrated (free of debt) on December 12, 1912, by Bishop Harding.

On December 15, 1936, there came from Long Island, like the first Rector, the Rev. Howard Sargent Wilkinson, D.D. to be the third Rector of St. Thomas' Parish.

Certain Parishioners Past and Present

St. Thomas' Church has been fortunate in attracting to itself as their spiritual home in Washington many distinguished persons.

When President Franklin Delano Roosevelt was Assistant Secretary of the Navy, he and his family were members of the Parish. He was also a vestryman and now we are proud to have him among us again and to be known as the President's Church. The Rev. Dr. Smith, while Rector, made the following statement in one of his publications—"Not for more than half a century has any Episcopal Church in Washington enjoyed this coveted honor, for not since President Arthur have we had an Episcopalian as President." Such appears strange when we consider the history of the Episcopal Church in our land, beginning with George Washington, an Episcopalian and a vestryman, and when we think of others of like faith who followed him as President.

Of those who have been outstanding, at various times, in the official, diplomatic, military, judicial and civil life of our City and who have held membership here, we recall the names of some who in various ways have been of much service to St. Thomas' Parish. Among these there has been an unusual number of officers of the Army and the Navy; in fact, in consequence, St. Thomas' has sometimes been called the Army and Navy Church. General John M. Wilson, a vestryman, and General Clarence R. Edwards were such. Likewise we recall certain Naval Officers who have been pillars of strength in our Temple of Worship: Admirals A. T. Mahan, George C. Remey, H. H. Rousseau and Benjamin F. Hutchison. Admiral William D. Leahy, formerly Chief of Naval Operations, Governor of Puerto Rico, Ambassador to France, and now the President's personal Chief of Staff, is an enrolled communicant and a vestryman. Former Congressman Bertrand H. Snell continues on our membership list, and the late Colonel Louis Howe, Secretary to the President, was a parishioner. Commander Needham L. Jones, U. S. N. Retired is Junior Warden and Registrar. General Frank T. Hines, U. S. A., Veterans' Bureau Administrator, and Admiral David F. Sellers, U. S. N. Retired, formerly Commander-in-Chief of the U. S. Fleet, are members of the Vestry, as is also that veteran Editor of the Washington Evening Star, Theodore W. Noyes, who was a member of the original Vestry and has been a Warden. Chief Justice Alfred A. Wheat, U. S. District Court, was Senior Warden at the time of his death, March 11, 1943.

When Ogden L. Mills was Secretary of the Treasury he was also a St. Thomas' vestryman. So likewise was U. S. Senator H. L. Myers of Montana. Four of our members have gone as Ambassadors to foreign countries, namely, W. W. Rockwell to China, George T. Marye to Russia, Walter E. Edge and Admiral Leahy to France. We have also had the privilege of welcoming in this Parish the following Ambassadors from Great Britain: Sir Mortimer Durand, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, Sir Auckland Geddes and Lord Halifax. Among the towers of strength during their life time might be mentioned such names as C. J. Bell, Melville Church, A. P. Crenshaw, John C. Davidson, B. P. Minnick, Henry E. Pellew, Dr. Guy F. Whiting.

Former vestrymen in more recent years have been Colonel William Baird, Lester A. Barr, Walter E. Edge, John H. Edwards, William R. Ellis, Captain Norman B. Hall, U. S. C. G., Walter C. Ilgenfritz, A. Gordon Jones, Wharton E. Lester, C. Leslie McCrea, Thomas H. Pickford, Congressman Bertrand H. Snell, Lieutenant Colonel Norman E. Towson, U. S. A., Major Ennals Waggaman, U. S. A., Ernest Wilkinson, Captain George L. Woodruff, U. S. N., Mr. Carter Hall.

The present Rector wishes to acknowledge his appreciation of the loyalty and faithfulness in all members of the Clergy Staff during his rectorship; formerly Dr. Allen J. Miller and Walter W. Gale; now William Lloyd Goodrich; Henry H. Clement; and also Dr. William S. Bishop, to whom the Rector desires to pay especial tribute after twenty-three years of service as Rector's Assistant, Vicar and Vicar Emeritus. May he be spared to us for many more years. In addition to Dr. Bishop, those of the Clergy Staff during Dr. Smith's rectorship were J. G. Ames, J. W. Austin, J. Neilson Barry, A. Cheetham, W. J. Cox, Harry C. Goodman, J. M. Hamilton, Alan S. Hawkesworth, Thomas A. Johnstone, J. M. E. McKee, Dr. William M. Pettis, R. B. Randolph, C. Herbert Reese, Walter W. Reid, Milward W. Riker, Carl S. Smith, Joseph E. Williams.

The Rector is also indebted to his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, for the historical data to be found here and for many extracts taken from Dr. Smith's various publications; also to Admiral Sellers, as a representative of the Vestry, for his cooperation and helpfulness in the preparation of this Fiftieth Anniversary Book.

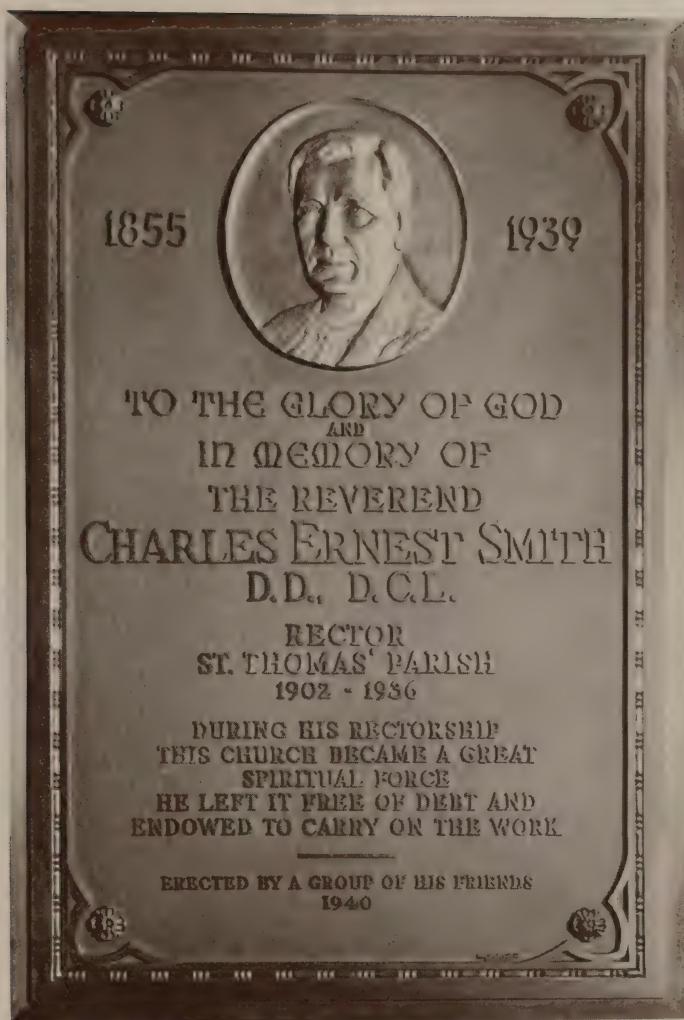

Miss Frances H. Withers did a wonderful work for more than twelve years as Directress of Religious Education in the Church School activities, while space prevents us from giving details of what has been accomplished by the Rector's Aid Society and the Woman's Auxiliary. Parish organizations have been or are now: Church Periodical Club, Woman's Auxiliary, Rector's Aid Society, Parish Guild, Chancel Chapter (now Altar Guild), Business and Professional Women, Young People's Fellowship, Dramatic Club, Bridge Club, Service Men's Club, Guild of St. Vincent, Men's Club, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Junior Brotherhood, Choir Club, Church School Council, Font Roll, United Thank Offering.

THE FONT

A Record of the Material Growth of St. Thomas' Parish

(Spiritual Growth No Man Can Gauge)

St. Thomas' Church, one of the youngest of Washington Churches (ground broken October 10, 1893; Corner Stone laid June 15, 1894, though dated 1893) is conceded to be Washington's most beautiful Church and well worth a visit. At the West, or Main Entrance on Eighteenth Street are heavy wrought iron and plate glass doors, a memorial to a faithful Treasurer, A. P. Crenshaw, while from the South Door you will see on your right a magnificent screen of quartered oak, on the other side of which is a beautiful Angel Font, sculptured in Italy, a copy of the famous Thorwaldsen Font now in the Copenhagen Cathedral.

On the left hand you will notice windows of striking quality of workmanship and coloring, quite unlike any other painted glass in Washington. These windows, of which there are in all thirty-six, were painted by Henry Holiday, R. A., the acknowledged head of his profession in the world, during his active life time. Sixteen of these Holiday windows tell the story of the Anglican Church from the time of Joseph of Arimathea to the Consecration of Bishop Seabury in Scotland, who brought the Apostolic Line to America.

Standing in the West Vestibule, and facing the Altar in the East, you will see a Statue of the Christ in the East Quatrefoil of the Lantern Tower, which deservedly receives much attention, sculptured and presented by Irone Hancock Russell.

On the South side of the Chancel, which is entirely shut off from the Nave and Transepts by iron gates and screen (memorials to Sophie Gray Heberton Casey) there is the Pendleton Organ, a gift by a mother bereaved of a son in the first World War, and on the North side is the Lady Chapel of Saint Mary The Virgin, which is most attractive by reason of its beauty and spiritual suggestiveness, another gift, this in memory of a beloved husband, Rear Admiral Benjamin F. Hutchison, U. S. N.

Within the Chancel, Stalls of quartered oak seat the large Choir which renders a Service equal to any in Washington and highly commended on a recent Sunday by "an old Choir man." The magnificent Reredos of Caen Stone against the East Wall dominates the Chancel and the whole Church. This Chancel was lengthened a few years ago by nine feet. Thus today, St. Thomas' Church, a gem of Gothic architecture and adorned in conformity with the best ecclesiastical traditions, presents an appearance which invariably suggests: "This is none other than the House of God and the Gate of Heaven."

The Casey Memorial Sacristy tells its own story of inspiration and service in the Kingdom of God.

In addition to these various improvements within the Church, the Parish has built a commodious Rectory on New Hampshire Avenue, a stately Parish House adjoining the Church, and later a much improved kitchen in the latter building. In 1928, Dr. Smith wrote—"We have here a proposition which measured in business terms represents an investment of $350,000.00." There has also been accumulated an Endowment Fund of about $130,000.00, which must be increased from time to time in order to make provision for the future of such a place, rapidly becoming, as Dr. Smith predicted, a down-town Church in a changing neighborhood.

ENDOWMENTS—Endowed Pews have been provided by Mrs. T. P. Morgan, Mrs. R. G. Donaldson, Mrs. C. T. Grayson and Mrs. Frances Smith. In the records of the Endowment Fund we find such notations and names as "A Memorial Endowment Fund" in memory of those who gave their lives in World War One (A. Richard Dean, Bessie Porter Edwards, Arthur T. Elmore, Edward S. Munford, Jr., Lenwood H. Ott, Edward Barton Pendleton, Irving E. Smith); also the Rev. William S. Bishop, D.D., Hortense Stevens Burns, the Choir, the Church School, Mrs. T. Nelson Conrad, Ellen Appleby DeValin, Pauline Dinwiddie, Antoinette C. Donaldson, May Gardner, Gertrude Durant, Caroline E. Gill, Emily W. Gill, James D. Gill, Lucy Hammett, Mrs. B. L. Hardin, Sidney A. Hilliard, Mrs. Sidney A. Hilliard, J. H. Hewson, Caroline Heywood, Pattie W. Jewel, Thryza Virginia McIlhenny, Marie Michie, Mrs. A. P. Niblack, Emily Barton Pendleton, Louise N. Reckenberg, Louis Rutherford, Helen J. G. Reilly, Theodore Schwan, Colonel Clarence A. Stedman, Sophia D. Wentworth, John M. Wilson, Colonel Augustus S. Worthington, Louise Starr Worthington, Stella A. Wheatley, O. W. Holmes, Jr., Katherine Lee Jones, Mrs. Frank M. Nixon, the Parish Guild.

MEMORIAL RECEPTION ROOM—Two years ago there was completed and furnished in the Parish House a Memorial Reception Room, toward which the contributors included Nancy Jones Barnewall, R. H. A. Carter, the Choir, the Church School, Mrs. Powell Clayton, Eva P. Cox, the Misses Duehring, Mrs. Walter Finley, Mrs. C. P. Gilkyson, Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mrs. R. S. R. Hitt, Mrs. Charles Hoffacker, Mrs. LeClair Hoover, Marion C. Jaster, Mrs. J. L. Jackson, Needham L. Jones, Mrs. Samuel A. Kimberly, Mrs. Henry J. Matchett, Mrs. D. Buchanan Merryman, Mrs. Anne B. Miller, Mrs. Earl R. Mosburg, Mrs. Albert P. Niblack, Theodore W. Noyes, Mrs. R. A. Patterson, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Rector's Aid Society, Mrs. Victoria B. Schneider, Mrs. Luther Sheldon, the Misses Sherman, Harry M. Sieber, Frank B. Sullivan, Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. William Wheatley, Paul R. White, Mrs. Howard S. Wilkinson, Mrs. Henry Williams, the Woman's Auxiliary.

The PARISH REGISTER—Such records as can be found indicate the number of Baptisms 900; Confirmations 1275; Marriages 604; Burials 858.

The Future of St. Thomas'

Parishioners, Neighbors, Friends, Visitors, all who have lost dear ones and are desirous of having a Memorial to them or who wish to make a Thank Offering to God for Special Mercies: It is suggested that consideration be given to such opportunities here as the remaining windows, the endowment of a pew that it may be free forever or gifts and legacies for the Parish Endowment Fund. Consult the Rector.
